

Company Handbook

This handbook describes the policies used by the company.

Handbook section 1

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Time Off

Full-time employees receive 20 vacation days each calendar year. Requests should be submitted through the e

Handbook section 2

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Parental Leave

Eligible employees may receive 20 weeks of paid parental leave. The leave team confirms eligibility before approval.

Handbook section 3

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Travel and Expenses

Employees may book standard rail travel without approval when the cost is below USD 250 per trip. Receipts are required for all travel expenses.

Handbook section 4

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Medical Benefits

Employees can select individual or family coverage during the enrollment window. The benefits team publishes

Handbook section 5

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Onboarding

New employees complete security training, identity verification, and equipment setup during their first week.

Handbook section 6

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Remote Work

Remote work requires an approved work location and compliance with the company security policy.

Handbook section 7

Source: company_handbook.pdf

Questions and Exceptions

Ask the HR operations team when a policy is unclear. Approved exceptions must be recorded in the HR system

Handbook section 8

Source: company_handbook.pdf